

The Voting Record of Richard J. Woldow

For a guy who's so wrapped up in the politics of where he DOESN'T live, you would think that he'd drag himself to the polls at home more than once every couple of years since he's only voted 36% of the time in 12 years!

This is not somebody you'd call a dedicated voter. It's not the issue that he doesn't vote; it's that he tries to influence other peoples' votes without casting one of his own. It's just confirmation that his political principles are based upon his wallet, not any particular political ideology.
